Notes

- 1 For Māori and Te Puna Wānaka graduands, appropriate dress may include a korowai instead of a gown, scarf, or hood. Degree graduates must have a trencher.
- 2 For students from other cultural backgrounds, appropriate dress may include elements of traditional dress.
- 3 Students receiving a Diploma or Certificate who have already graduated with a NZ degree may opt to wear the hood for their previously awarded degree along with a trencher and gown.
- 4 For Bachelor degree students who have already graduated with another degree, appropriate dress includes the hood of the new Ara degree. It is not appropriate to wear two hoods.
